

Entry Form

The Australian Stone Advisory Association (ASAA) invites architects, stone suppliers and installers to participate in the ASAA Architectural Stone Awards.

The entry criteria for the ASAA Architectural Stone Awards are established by the Australian Institute of Architects and ASAA as follows:

- An architect must be involved in the project.
- The project must display good design values.
- Entry can be instigated by the architect, stone producer, stone supplier, builder, designer or installer.
- Entrants in the 'Imported Stone' category must be members of the Australian Stone Advisory Association.

Our awards are divided into two categories:

- Best use of Australian Natural Stone
- Best use of Imported Stone

Awards are presented for:

Australian Stone:

- Best Commercial Project
- Best Civic Project
- Best Restoration Project
- Best Export Project
- Best Sculpture Project
- Best Residential Project

Imported Stone:*

- Best Commercial
- Best Civic
- Best Residential

 Only ASAA members can enter these categories.*

ENTRIES SHOULD BE ACCOMPANIED BY: (Enter information here) Additional text material can be provided in a separate document or links to online material about the project in the covering email when sending this form.

Name of the Architect

Name of the Designer

Name of the Builder/Developer

Name of the Stone Supplier

Name of the Stone Installer

Stone Description (Including type, size, finish and quantities.)

Entries must be accompanied by at least three high resolution images.

A Premier award winning entry will be selected from the entries which feature Australian natural stone. Awards will be presented to the participating architect. The stone supplier and installer will also receive an award certificate.

The awards will be judged by members of the Australian Institute of Architects.

The final entries will feature in issue 33 of Discovering Stone magazine.

Submit your completed application with supporting images to info@asaa.com.au. (Download this pdf to your computer and fill in the form. Then click the email link, or orange button below, and this pdf will automatically be attached to your email).

The closing date is 15 August 2018.